WAR NEWS.

Gen. Grant, in a dispatch to the U.S. War Department, dated March 27, says:-"The battle of the 25th resulted in the following loss on our side: -2d corps, killed, 51; wounded, 462; Missing, 177. 6th corps, killed, 47; wounded, 401; missing, 30. 9th corps, killed, 63, wounded, 338; missing, 506. Our caltures were by the 2d corps, 365; 6th corps, 469, 9th corps, 1,049. The 2d and 6th corps pushed forward, and captured the enemy's strong entrenched picket line, and turned it against him, and still hold it. In trying to retake this, the battle was continued until 8 o'clock at night; the enemy losing very heavily. Humphreys estimates the loss of the encmy in his front at three times his own, and Wright estimates it in his front as double. The enemy sent a flag of truce yesterday for permission to collect his wounded and bury their dead which were between what had been their picket line and their main line of fortifi cations. The permission was granted."

Gen Grant in another dispatch dated the 27th says:-"I am in receipt of Sherman's report of operations from the time he left Fayetteville up to the 22d inst. It shows hard fighting, resulting in very heavy loss to the enemy in killed and wounded, and over 2,000 prisoners. His own loss he says will be covered by 2,500 men, since he left Savannah. Many of them are but slightly wounded."

The Dictator lest City Point at eight A. M. on Sunday, at which time General Sheridan and staff, she reports, were at City Point, and General Sheridan's forces were laying pontoon bridges across the James river preparatory to crossing over to City Point.

The correspondent of the Associated Press gives some further details about the Fort Steadman affair, and from his account, as well as from the official bulletins of Saturday, it appears that three several assaults were made before the fort was retaken from the Confederates. He also states that most of the garrison which had been captured by the Confederates and sent towards their lines under guard, sneceeded in escaping.

The World has a despatch dated Kingston the 22d, to the effect that Sherman and Johnston were entrenched opposite each other, on the south side of the Neuse. According to this despatch there had been continuous and severe flighting every day, all the way from Fayetteville, and very desperate contests on Sunday and Monday of last week.

The Richmond Examiner of the 22d says:-Between nine hundred and one thousand prisoners, captured by General Bragg at Kinston, North Carolina, will arrive in Richmond this afternoon. A large number of commissoned officers are among them.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 24th says: -"The Spring campaign is to have other combinations than those already developed. Not only is Grant to hold Lee in Richmond, and Sherman occupy Johnston in North Carolina, but Thomas is reported moving east from Knoxville, and Hancock preparing to move again up the valley. Four great columns converging on Richmond from the four points of the compass are expected to strike blows under which the rebellion must succumb. Nous verrons."

The Washington Chronicle says-"The great battle of the 25th seems to have been a success for the Union troops."

The Confederates have again attacked the railroad in Kentucky and captured a train at Glasgow Junction a few miles south of Louisville. One hundred and fifty Federal soldiers were on board, and the Confederate commander politely bade them good evening and rode away.

From New Orleans it is reported and credited in military circles that Mobile has been evacuated. (?) The property of J. P. Benjamin and John Slidell, in New Orleans, has been forteited.
